

Construction Area

Here budding engineers can show off their construction skills. There are many holes to be dug and barrows to be pushed on our busy construction site. Climb the giant scaffolding or build a wooden playhouse from scratch. For budding engineers there's the opportunity to design and create your own balloon-powered car or water-powered boat. Design it, build it and watch it go!